Reminder: Registration is through Web4U: (<http://mywestern.wvu.edu/> - click on “Web4U” and sign in). Then, click the “Student” tab, then “Registration”, then “Add/Drop Classes”, then select term (“Winter 2023”) and click on “Submit”, then enter the five digit CRN for each course you want to register for in the boxes below and click on submit changes (if needed-for variable credit courses (RC 592), after you register for the class you will then need to go back to the Registration menu and choose Change Variable Credit Hours to choose number of credits from the drop down menu).

Course Information

RC

RC 583 Theories & Techniques of RC II (6 credits) (CRN 12710 or 12711)

Prereq: RC 580 or permission of instructor. This is the second in a two course sequence focusing on major counseling theories and techniques. It is a continuation from RC 580 of the introduction to major counseling theories, with an emphasis on continued development and refinement of practice skills through advanced role play and direct counseling with individuals with disabilities. Competencies will be developed and demonstrated through assigned readings, didactic instruction, microskills training, class discussion, and self-study assignments.

Class meets Wednesdays, from 5-8:50 pm via synchronous Zoom sessions. First class meeting will be January 4th. Course is co-taught by Dr. Elizabeth Scriven (Elizabeth.Scriven@wvu.edu) & Dr. Brett Kuwada (Brett.Kuwada@wvu.edu).

You can choose which section to register for. If you try to register for one section and it is full, please register for the other section. Sections 1 & 2 will meet together during most class times.

RC
586RC 586 Medical Aspects of Disability (6 credits) (CRN 12712)

Prereq: Graduate status or permission of instructor. An examination of the etiology, prognosis, treatment, and vocational implications of major disabling conditions, with an emphasis on physical, sensory, and cognitive impairments. Includes an introduction to medical specialties, therapeutic services, restorative techniques, medical terminology, and assistive technology.

Asynchronous Online Course. Introduction materials will be on Canvas. Instructor: Dr. Kevin Bengtson (Kevin.Bengtson@wwu.edu).

RC
588RC 588 Career Development and Job Placement (6 credits) (CRN 12714)

Examines career development theories, occupational information, labor market trends, and meaningful employment with a career focus. Includes job analysis, employment techniques, accommodations, and legislation.

Asynchronous Online Course. Introduction materials will be on Canvas. Instructor: Dr. Kathe Matrone (Kathe.Matrone@wwu.edu).

RC
594RC 594 Psychiatric Disabilities in Rehabilitation (4 credits) (CRN 12713)

Understanding major psychiatric disorders, principles and practices of psychiatric rehabilitation. Examines the role of the rehabilitation counselor as an integral part of the treatment team.

Asynchronous Online Course. Introduction materials will be on Canvas. Instructor: Dr. Elizabeth Scriven (Elizabeth.Scriven@wwu.edu).

Practicum

If you are planning on doing your Practicum in the winter, read the Supervised Professional Practice Handbook to be sure you understand what is required. The handbook can be found online on the program website at <https://wce.wwu.edu/rc/field-experiences>.

DISABILITY ACCESS CENTER

If you require services and/or accommodations related to a disability, contact the Disability Access Center (<https://disability.wvu.edu/>) for access to services, information, and referrals; 360.650.3083 (Voice), 360.255.7175 (VP), or drs@wvu.edu.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The RC Advisory Committee is composed of representatives from employers and education, as well as alumni of the program and current students. It meets twice a year. In fall, the meeting is on 11/18. In spring, the meeting is usually in May or June. Students are welcome to observe. Notify Monica Holmer (rc.everett@wvu.edu) if you want to attend, so she can give you details.

BOOKS

Your books can be ordered online from the Western Associated Students Bookstore (<http://www.bookstore.wvu.edu/>) or through the Verba price comparison tool (<http://www.verbacompare.com/>). You can also purchase your textbooks through Amazon or any bookstore. To contact customer service at the Western Books call 360-650-3970 or email textdept@wvu.edu. Purchase Orders for books should be payable to the Western AS Bookstore.

Order your books early. If you want to check out other sources, be sure you are ordering the correct edition, and don't wait too long! It is strongly recommended that you purchase your books rather than renting, as you will need them again for the Comprehensive Exam, and they are the beginning of your professional library.

Special Instructions for eligible Veteran's and students eligible for federal/state assistance (DVR/DSB) with textbook purchases:

1. Students will advise agency Counselor to send email authorization to confirm arrangements and identity of eligible student. Students will request agency to include allowance for shipping ($15.00/order). The contact for agency accounts at the Western AS Bookstore is Sonya Dyer: sonja.dyer@wvu.edu.
2. Agency will send PO/Authorization to Sonya Dyer for each student.
3. Students will place their orders online at: https://bookstore.wvu.edu/textbook_options.asp. When buying your textbooks online please comment in the Note section at the end of checkout that you have a third party paying for your textbooks. You will still need to fill in your Western ID number. Please enter a valid UPS shipping address unless you are scheduling a pickup. If you are unable to locate your textbook needs on the Bookstore site or have any issues ordering online, please contact Sonya Dyer. Also, if ordering an e-book, you will not be able to do that online. Please either email Sonya Dyer to place e-book orders.
4. For students with authorized supply orders, if you do not see what you need online, please email Sonya Dyer.
5. Textbooks and supplies can either be mailed to students or students may schedule a time for pick up at the WWU Bookstore in Bellingham.

COUNSELING SERVICES

Please go to the RC Student Resources Canvas site. Then look under Modules for Counseling Services Available to WWU Everett Students.

RETURNING STUDENTS

If you did not take classes fall term and did not register for GRAD 699, you must reapply for admission using the “Returning Grad Student” program option within the application: <https://www.applyweb.com/wwugrad/index.ftl>. Contact the Graduate School (gradschool@wwu.edu or 360-650-3170) or Monica if you have any questions.

Reminder: The Graduate School’s Continuous Enrollment Policy went into effect Winter Quarter 2018: <http://www.wwu.edu/gradschool/policies.shtml>. Students who have not completed all degree requirements and are not currently registered for any RC credits will be required to register for GRAD 699, Continuous Enrollment, every quarter (excluding summers) until the degree requirements are completed. GRAD 699 is non-graded (flat fee of $50). Contact the Graduate School (gradschool@wwu.edu) and ask for an override to register for GRAD 699 in winter quarter.

GRADUATING STUDENTS

If you plan to graduate in March, you must submit your Application for Master’s Degree (“Blue Card”) by December 9. The application can be submitted via e-form by going to https://esign.wwu.edu/admcs/process/forms/Grad_School/Masters_Degree_Application_blue5.aspx. Please read the instructions and complete the form carefully (it asks for what name you would like on your diploma and where it should be mailed after you graduate). After you complete Section 1 of the form, please insert Beth’s email (elizabeth.boland@wwu.edu) at the bottom of the form in the blue box next to “Email To:” and click submit. Contact Monica Holmer if you need assistance with the form.

Please remember that a non-refundable graduation fee will be billed to your student account each time your file is evaluated for degree completion.

TERM DATES

If you are thinking about planning a trip or vacation, please remember that Western’s term dates (the start and end dates for each quarter) can be found at <http://www.wwu.edu/registrar/calendars/term-dates.shtml>.

CRC EXAM

The Commission on Rehabilitation Counselor Certification offers the CRC exam three times a year in a computer-based format. The deadline to apply for the March exam is December 15. Check the CRCC website (www.crccertification.com) for more information and the application materials. For more information on the CRC credential, go to <https://crccertification.com/benefits-of-certification/>.
