

MA in Rehabilitation Counseling Program

RSA SCHOLARSHIP GUIDELINES AND APPLICATION

The Rehabilitation Services Administration (RSA) is committed to increasing the supply of trained rehabilitation counselors available for employment in public and related rehabilitation agencies and institutions involved in the vocational rehabilitation of individuals with disabilities. Therefore, RSA provides a limited number of scholarships to individuals seeking a Rehabilitation Counseling master's degree at selected universities, including Western Washington University.

The Rehabilitation Counseling Academic Program Director reviews scholarship applications annually to determine which students will receive a scholarship. Scholars must reapply each year they wish to be funded. In selecting recipients, the priorities of the Rehabilitation Counseling Program adhere to federal guidelines and additional priorities, which are indicated on the scholarship application form.

The Rehabilitation Counseling program, in keeping with the RSA personnel development intentions of the scholarship program, considers attendance in the program on a continuous, full-time basis as a high priority. This is partially due to the fact that federal support is provided on a continuous, 12-month basis. In addition to all other criteria for awarding of scholarships, students who demonstrate a commitment to consecutive terms of study, including a full-time internship are likely to receive higher consideration than those who do not. Individual, special, or extenuating circumstances are reviewed in each student's application. Nonetheless, a desire to complete the program in the most timely and expeditious manner is considered important and relevant.

A student's commitment to the profession of rehabilitation counseling and the field of vocational rehabilitation is vital. In order to maintain accreditation, and to obtain federal support for RSA scholarships, the Rehabilitation Counseling program must maintain an accurate list of students and graduates, which includes their places of employment. Therefore, all students, and particularly those who receive RSA scholarships, must agree to maintain contact with the Rehabilitation Counseling program after graduation or after cessation of enrollment in courses.

Federal Regulations

The following are excerpts from 34 CFR 386, which establishes the federal regulations regarding the RSA Long-Term Training Scholarships:

34 CFR 386.33 What are the requirements for grantees in disbursing scholarships?

Before disbursement of scholarship assistance to an individual, a grantee—

- (a)(1) Must obtain documentation that the individual is—
 - (i) A U.S. citizen or national; or
 - (ii) A permanent resident of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, The United States Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa, or the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands; or
- (a)(2) Must confirm from documentation issued to the individual by the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service that he or she—
 - (i) Is a lawful permanent resident of the United States; or
 - (ii) Is in the United States for other than a temporary purpose with the intention of becoming a citizen or permanent resident; and
- (b) Must confirm that the applicant has expressed interest in a career in clinical practice, administration, supervision, teaching, or research in the vocational rehabilitation, supported employment, or independent living rehabilitation of individuals with disabilities, especially individuals with significant disabilities;

 - (1) The employment is in the field of study in which the training was received or
 - (2) Where the job functions are directly relevant to the field of study in which the training was received.
- (d) Must ensure that the scholarship, when added to the amount of financial aid the scholar receives for the same academic year under title IV of the Higher Education Act, does not exceed the scholar's cost of attendance;
- (e) Must limit scholarship assistance to no more than four academic years, unless the grantee provides an extension consistent with the institution's accommodations under section 504 of the Act; and
- (f) Must obtain a Certification of Eligibility for Federal Assistance from each scholar as prescribed in 34 CFR 75.60, 75.61, and 75.62.

34 CFR 386.34 What assurances must be provided by a grantee that intends to provide scholarships?

A grantee under this part that intends to grant scholarships for any academic year beginning after June 1, 1992, shall provide the following assurances before an award is made:

- (a) Requirement for agreement. No individual will be provided a scholarship without entering into a written agreement containing the terms and conditions required by this section. An individual will sign and date the agreement prior to the initial disbursement of scholarship funds to the individual for payment of the individual's expenses. An agreement must be executed between the grantee and scholar for each subsequent year that scholarship funds are disbursed and must contain the terms and conditions required by this section.
- (b) Disclosure to applicants. The terms and conditions of the agreement between the grantee and a scholar will be fully disclosed in the application for scholarship.
- (c) Form and terms of agreement. Prior to granting each year of a scholarship, the grantee will require each scholar to enter into a signed written agreement in which the scholar agrees to the terms and conditions set forth in § 386.40. This agreement must be in the form and contain any additional terms and conditions that the Secretary may require.

- (d) Executed agreement. The grantee will provide an original signed executed payback agreement upon request to the Secretary.
- (e) Standards for satisfactory progress. The grantee will establish, publish, and apply reasonable standards for measuring whether a scholar is maintaining satisfactory progress in the scholar's course of study. The Secretary considers an institution's standards to be reasonable if the standards—
- (1) Conform with the standards of satisfactory progress of the nationally recognized accrediting agency that accredits the institution's program of study, if the institution's program of study is accredited by such an agency, and if the agency has those standards;
 - (2) For a scholar enrolled in an eligible program who is to receive assistance under the Rehabilitation Act, are the same as or stricter than the institution's standards for a student enrolled in the same academic program who is not receiving assistance under the Rehabilitation Act; and
 - (3) Include the following elements:
 - (i) Grades, work projects completed, or comparable factors that are measurable against a norm.
 - (ii) A maximum timeframe in which the scholar must complete the scholar's educational objective, degree, or certificate.
 - (iii) Consistent application of standards to all scholars within categories of students; e.g., full-time, part-time, undergraduates, graduate students, and students attending programs established by the institution.
 - (iv) Specific policies defining the effect of course incompletes, withdrawals, repetitions, and noncredit remedial courses on satisfactory progress.
 - (v) Specific procedures for appeal of a determination that a scholar is not making satisfactory progress and for reinstatement of aid.
- (f) Exit certification.
- (1) At the time of exit from the program, the grantee will provide the following information to the scholar:
 - (i) The name of the institution and the number of the Federal grant that provided the scholarship.
 - (ii) The total amount of scholarship assistance received subject to § 386.40(a)(7).
 - (iii) The scholar's field of study and the obligation of the scholar to perform the service obligation with employment that meets the requirements in § 386.40(a)(7)(i).
 - (iv) The number of years the scholar needs to work to satisfy the work requirements in § 386.40(a)(7)(ii).
 - (v) The time period during which the scholar must satisfy the work requirements in § 386.40(a)(8).
 - (vi) As applicable, all other obligations of the scholar in § 386.40.
 - (2) Upon receipt of this information from the grantee, the scholar must provide written and signed certification to the grantee that the information is correct.
- (g) Tracking system. The grantee has established policies and procedures to determine compliance of the scholar with the terms of the signed payback agreement. In order to determine whether a scholar has met the terms and conditions set forth in § 386.40, the tracking system must include for each employment position maintained by the scholar—

- (1) Documentation of the employer's name, address, dates of the scholar's employment, name of supervisor, position title, a description of the duties the scholar performed, and whether the employment is full- or part-time;
 - (2) Documentation of how the employment meets the requirements in § 386.40(a)(7); and
 - (3) In the event a grantee is experiencing difficulty locating a scholar, documentation that the grantee has checked with existing tracking systems operated by alumni organizations.
- (h) Reports. The grantee will make annual reports to the Secretary, unless more frequent reporting is required by the Secretary, that are necessary to carry out the Secretary's functions under this part.
- (i) Repayment status. The grantee will immediately report to the Secretary whenever a scholar has entered repayment status under § 386.43(e) and provide all necessary documentation in support thereof.

These instances could include, but are not limited to, the care of a disabled spouse, partner, or child or the need to accompany a spouse or partner on active duty in the Armed Forces.

34 CFR 386.42 What must a scholar do to obtain a deferral or exception to performance or repayment under a scholarship agreement?

To obtain an exception or a deferral to performance or repayment under a scholarship agreement under § 386.41, a scholar must provide the following:

- (b) Interest rate. The Secretary charges the scholar interest on the unpaid balance owed in accordance with 31 U.S.C. 3717.
- (c) Interest accrual.
 - (1) Interest on the unpaid balance accrues from the date the scholar is determined to have entered repayment status under paragraph (e) of this section.
 - (2) Any accrued interest is capitalized at the time the scholar's repayment schedule is established.
 - (3) No interest is charged for the period of time during which repayment has been deferred under § 386.41.
- (d) Collection costs. Under the authority of 31 U.S.C. 3717, the Secretary may impose reasonable collection costs.

- (f) Amounts and frequency of payment. The scholar shall make payments to the Secretary that cover principal, interest, and collection costs according to a schedule established by the Secretary.

Additional RSA Requirements

The current RSA Long-Term Training Scholarships require that a scholar completes an internship at a designated State rehabilitation agency as a rehabilitation counselor or related professional. The designated state agencies in Washington State are the Washington Division of Vocational Rehabilitation (DVR) and the Washington Department of Services for the Blind (DSB). The WWU MA in Rehabilitation Counseling Program has defined an internship as a minimum of one quarter (or an equivalent of 300 hours over multiple quarters) at DVR or DSB.

Additional WWU Requirements

In addition to the requirements established by the RSA, the following guidelines have been established at Western Washington University.

1. Scholarship candidates should be fully admitted to graduate status to work toward the Master of Arts degree in Rehabilitation Counseling. In order to be considered for continuation of an RSA scholarship after the first year of funding, the student must complete and submit a new application for each subsequent year of funding.

2. Scholarship recipients must maintain at least a 3.0 GPA each quarter.
3. Any Incomplete (K) grades are evaluated on an individual basis.
4. Once the candidate is awarded an RSA scholarship, and based on the availability of federal funds, the scholarship will continue to be awarded each successive quarter, including summer, of that academic year provided that the student maintains satisfactory progress in the Master's degree program.
5. Scholarship funds will not be used to pay for courses that must be repeated due to low grades or dropping a class after the deadline for refunds.
6. Scholarship funds will not be used to pay for late fees or graduation fees.
7. Scholarship awards will be made for the Fall quarter of the academic year (or Summer if funds are available) and continue through the following Summer quarter. If any additional federal funds become available during the year, applicants may be considered for funding beginning later in the year. Applications for mid-year funding must be received by the Rehabilitation Counseling Academic Program Director one month prior to the start of the quarter for which the student is requesting funding.
