AND

Writing Proficiency Test (WPT): A test of writing ability; 80 to 90 minutes. Cost is $70 + proctor fee.

What are “proctor fees”? This is the fee that you pay to the testing center or person who oversees your testing experience. At the WWU Testing Center the fee is $20 per test for Western students.

When and where are the tests offered? You need to find a testing center or proctor and coordinate the date and location. The Language Testing International (LTI), has specific requirements regarding who can be a proctor. Read up on these when you create your account with the test vendor. When you register you will LTI who will be your proctor and specify two possible dates & times.

The WWU Testing Center can be your proctor. It is located at 333 - 32nd Street, Room 120, Bellingham, WA 98225. Contact the WWU Testing Center to check availability (360) 650-3080 or (360) 650-3937. Website: www.wwu.edu/assess/ Email: testingcenter@wwu.edu

How do I find out the results of my test? Once the scoring of your test is complete, you can view the test result and print an Official ACTFL Proficiency Certificate from the LTI Candidate website. Then email a copy to the Woodring Certification Office.

Test Preparation and Content Remediation: Access test preparation materials through the Test Vendor's website after you create your account. Contact the Certification office if you need guidance on test preparation materials or a referral to faculty for content remediation.
