Student: We request a signed copy of this contract be submitted at the New Student Orientation. If you have any questions, please discuss those with WCE personnel during the orientation.

Faculty and staff of the Woodring College of Education have the responsibility to assure children, families, and the public that WWU graduates are fully competent teachers who have successfully completed a rigorous academic program of study and met all program and state requirements. WWU teacher education candidates must demonstrate academic competence in content, pedagogy, and professionalism throughout their program of study. This document serves as a summary of the expected academic professional behaviors, but is not an exhaustive list.

Candidates in our teacher education programs must adhere to the Washington Standards for Beginning Teachers (Standard V), and specific Program and Woodring College of Education standards regarding professional development, teaching as a profession and professional contributions, and effective teaching.

Candidates entering our programs must review all information in this document and sign below. Signing reflects that the candidate agrees to:

COMMUNICATION/CONFIDENTIALITY

1. Communicate in an appropriate and professional manner, including all verbal, written, and electronic communication (including any future forms not currently in use). This includes, but is not limited to: communicating in a professional manner, being sensitive to all audiences, maintaining confidentiality, following district policy with respect to email, phone #s, texting, Facebook, blogs, etc. Understand that in most circumstances districts require teachers to use district email and phone #s when corresponding with students and parents/guardians and that not adhering to district policy is a breach of professionalism.
2. Understand that the use of electronic passwords or controls does not meet or sustain confidentiality and that ultimately all forms of communication may be considered public and not confidential. As such, posting confidential information pertaining to your program, WWU faculty and staff, school-based field experiences, P-12 students and parents/guardians, school teachers, administrators, and staff is in violation of FERPA and possibly HIPAA.
3. Maintain confidentiality at all times and learn requirements under FERPA and HIPAA.
4. Not blog or use other forms of electronic communication in any manner that violates FERPA or HIPAA.
5. Not discuss confidential information through any form of communication unless there is a legitimate educational purpose required to meet teaching expectations such as collaboration with mentoring teachers.
6. Use extreme caution and sensitivity when discussing non-confidential information about my program, WWU faculty and staff, school-based field experiences, P-12 students and parents/guardians, school teachers, administrators, and staff and understand that as a teacher, I am a steward of my P-12 students and community.
7. Not remove in any format (hard copy, electronic, etc.) any official or confidential documents (such as report cards, IEPs, 504 plans, etc.) from the classroom/school.
8. Not leave any official or confidential documents in public view, including attendance rosters.
9. Store student work carefully and confidentially.

VIDEOTAPING

1. Follow all video/digital taping requirements and procedures.
2. Follow required videotaping procedures for the edTPA (Teacher Performance Assessment) and only use the official WWU-Office of Field Experiences edTPA video permission forms and will not, under any circumstance create my own permission form, use a program non-TPA form, not use a form, or use a district form without first consulting the OFE Director 360.650.3309 or ofe@wwu.edu.
3. Follow required videotaping procedures for the edTPA that mandates excluding from video of all students without a valid permission form, but retain students in the instructional lesson.
4. Return all original edTPA video permission forms to WWU/OFE and understand that failure to return video permission forms will invalidate my edTPA.
5. Destroy all program and edTPA videotapes (all versions, drafts, practice, final) after a passing score report is received and a copy (if I grant permission) is provided to my program.

PROFESSIONAL PRACTICE
1. Not break confidentiality (FERPA and/or HIPAA)
2. Follow all legal requirements for mandated reporting for child abuse/neglect and understand this requirement extends to me as a candidate in a teacher education program.
3. Engage in practice that is reflective, collaborative, and professionally growth-centered.
4. Adhere to standards of professional dress and deportment.
5. Conduct self ethically and professionally at all times.
6. Be on time and in attendance when required and submit all assignments/plans on time.
7. Assume personal responsibility for performance.
8. Display initiative by using a variety of resources appropriately.
9. Invite and seek professional self-improvement through feedback and adjust my behavior and actions based on such information.
10. Use problem-solving approaches to sensitive situations.
11. Use knowledge of families and community resources appropriately to enhance support for students.
12. Demonstrate respect and support for all students, treating all equally and equitably, using appropriate language that emphasizes people first language and never denigrating students.
13. Not arrange for my own field experience placements (practicum, student teaching).
14. Follow all program field experience and student teaching requirements, including:
   a. Following all program requirements for practica field placements.
   b. Understanding that all student teaching communication goes through personnel with the Office of Field Experiences and I will not query teachers or school administrators in any form regarding the possibility of student teaching in their school/district.
   c. Adhere to program and Office of Field Experiences policies and guidelines for student teaching start dates, end dates, and other timelines. This includes:
      i. Fall starts – when teachers report back to work in the fall (usually late August).
      ii. Spring starts – Monday of WWU Spring Break (I understand that if my fulltime start term is spring that I will NOT take the WWU Spring Break and start my student teaching that week).

PROFESSIONAL POLICY AND LEGAL REQUIREMENTS
1. Keep informed by professional, ethical and legal responsibilities and policies. Learn, understand, and follow all laws, regulations, and policies required for teachers.
2. Understand all photograph and videotaping limitations and expectations.
3. Meet school and university expectations, policies, and requirements.
4. Thoroughly review and adhere to the Washington Code of Professional Conduct and understand that any actions counter to the code will result in appropriate university, program and/or state level actions.
5. Adhere to all FERPA requirements regarding maintaining confidentiality of student and family information and confidentiality of peers, staff, faculty, and administrator information. That will also include confidentiality pertaining to HIPAA.
6. Understand and adhere to all laws and policies regarding Child Abuse/Neglect Reporting and understand that I am a 24 hour mandated reporter. I understand this will require that I learn such requirements for each school district in which I am placed for a program-related field experience.
7. Adhere to the WWU Academic Honesty Policy and understand that Western Washington University students are responsible for reading, understanding, and following the policy and procedures regarding academic honesty as set forth in the WWU Academic Honesty Policy and Procedure (see Appendix D of the University Catalog).

8. Maintain fingerprinting and character CLEARANCE at all times while in the program and will complete a new character clearance as soon as an incident occurs that requires disclosure. I understand that continuation in the program, coursework, and any and all field experiences is contingent upon maintaining such clearance.

9. Take the state required content endorsement exam(s) and the Teacher Performance Assessment (edTPA) and understand that Washington State requires teacher candidates to pass these required assessments. Further understand that:
   a. ALL content exams for all endorsements I am earning must be passed prior to the start of my FIRST student teaching internship.
   b. Only upon special permission granted prior to the start of the internship may I remain in the internship without passing required endorsement content exam scores.
   c. The edTPA must be completed during student teaching.

10. Adhere to other requirements, including but not limited to additional school, district, or university expectations.

11. Highly consider purchasing professional liability insurance and understand that WWU nor the school districts where I complete my field experiences and/or program-required service learning provide such coverage and that for some school district, such coverage is required for placement.

My below signature reflects my understanding and review of, and agreement to, this contract and I acknowledge my responsibility to fully understand all requirements, expectations and corresponding WWU, Woodring, P-12 school, and state and federal policies, rules, laws, and regulations pertaining to my course of study, being a professional teacher and teacher candidate.

Consequences for failing to comply with these expectations may include, but are not limited to, removal from the program, inability to meet requirements for certification, removal from the university, probation, performance contract, removal from a field-experience, removal from the full-time internship, postponement of the internship, low internship performance ratings, or an unsatisfactory internship grade that would result in not being recommended for certification.
