Bellingham graduates are highly sought after by school districts. Secondary teachers must be endorsed to teach in at least one subject area, and MIT students often obtain dual endorsements for strength in the job market.

Qualifying endorsements (Bellingham and Everett):
- English Language Arts
- Mathematics
- Science
- Social Sciences

Qualifying endorsements (Bellingham only):
- Drama
- Music
- Physical Education, Health & Recreation
- TESOL certification
- World Languages
- and many more

Master in Teaching program offers:
- Small cohort model
- Many options for endorsements
- Extensive field-based learning opportunities in a variety of settings
- Opportunities to build professional/personal relationships
- Dedicated, experienced professors
- Opportunities for local and global student teaching

Visit our website for a complete list of qualifying and additional endorsement options.
Western’s Master in Teaching (MIT) program provides a comprehensive, highly-reputable, learning- and field-focused experience. At completion, candidates receive a Master’s Degree and a Residency Teaching Certificate.

Teaching / Methods Courses:
• Unit and lesson planning
• Assessment design
• Classroom management

Foundations:
• Philosophy
• Psychology
• Socio-cultural issues

Field Experiences:
• Middle and high school practicums
• Internships, including regional, national, global opportunities
• Year-long service learning (Bellingham only)

Check our website for a full list of courses.

Preparing thoughtful, knowledgeable, and effective educators for a diverse society.

Active Minds Changing Lives

Frequently Asked Questions

For more information, visit our website at http://www.wce.wwu.edu/Depts/SEC/.

Graduate School Requirements
• Transcripts
• Minimum 3.0 GPA
• Graduate Record Exam or Miller Analogies Test scores
• Three letters of recommendation
• Application form
No GRE/MAT required
Admission to the program includes State and department requirements:

State Requirements:
• WEST-B or SAT or ACT scores
• WEST-E

Secondary Education Requirements:
• Résumé
• Interviews
• Personal statement
• English composition course with a grade of B or higher
• Endorsement coursework
• A transcript evaluation

The Everett program offers evening classes for working professionals.

Contact us to learn about out-of-state application options.

For more information, visit our website at http://www.wce.wwu.edu/Depts/SEC/.

How much does it cost?
WWU’s tuition is competitive compared to other area universities. Check current rates at http://www.wwu.edu/gradschool/.

What financial aid options are there?
Applications to Financial Aid and scholarship opportunities are available. Graduate Assistant opportunities are available on the Bellingham campus.

Can I still work while in the program?
Yes, except during student teaching, which is a full-time commitment.

How are the application deadlines and the program start dates for Bellingham and Everett campuses?
• April 1st—Bellingham, for fall quarter start date
• October 1st—Bellingham, for winter quarter start date
• March 1st—Everett, for summer quarter start date

How long does it take to complete the program?
• Typically it takes 7-8 quarters to complete the program, earn your certification, and be ready to teach.