Woodring College of Education

BY THE NUMBERS

TOP 9
Woodring’s Special Education program has been named #9 in the top 10 Special Education programs in the U.S. from more than 400 qualifying colleges reviewed by Teacher.Org and #7 out of 96 special education programs reviewed nationwide by the National Council on Teacher Quality (NCTQ).

93% of WWU graduates pass the Washington Educator Skills Tests Endorsements (WEST-E) on their first attempt.

WWU is the only public university in the state of Washington with a college of education that is accredited nationally by the National Council of Accreditation of Teacher Education.

12 current and past Woodring faculty recipients of the WWU Excellence in Teaching Award.

7,582 Number of WCE graduates serving Washington State as teachers, principals and superintendents in 165 districts across 34 counties.

300 student teacher interns have been placed in 36 foreign countries.

305 teacher education graduates in 2015 were endorsed to teach in 22 different subject areas.

4 Unique and diverse educational resource centers are open to students, faculty, staff, families, educators, and the general public.
Locations for teacher education, educational leadership, human services and RN-to-BSN programs in Everett, Seattle, Bremerton, Tacoma, and Mount Vernon. WWU ensures access to high quality programs in the region and responds to state needs for well-prepared professionals in all these areas.

Average number of hours in field-based experiences for teacher education students.

Average GPA for accepted students based on courses taken outside of the College of Education. WCE students’ scores on standardized assessment of academic content are consistently among the highest in the state.

Number of Human Services internship hours each year in community organizations.

Average of principals report graduates to be “prepared,” “well prepared,” and “extremely well prepared.”

Out of 1300 currently enrolled students in all Woodring programs are residents of Washington State.

State and national awards to the Compass 2 Campus pathways program, including the President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll with Distinction Award, five years in a row.

The nationally accredited RN-to-BSN program expanded their program of preparing highly-qualified nurse leaders to Skagit Valley College.

Out of 1300 currently enrolled students in all Woodring programs are residents of Washington State.