Diversity Initiative Budget Funding Considerations	$2,000 - R&R Specialist: Diversity in Education Conference $2000 to augment other funding sources $2,000 - CEED outreach site (Everett) toolkit $1,000 videos, books, licensing Total= $3,000 for other proposals Grand Total for all proposals = $12,000 $27,486 Balance Pres. Diversity Initiative – $12,000 EDC Proposals $15,486 Balance FIGS – work group is meeting next week and will report during the next meeting. Scholarships – have met twice already. Have raised about $7,000 in payroll deductions for scholarships through CEED. The sub-committee would like to create a fund raising event during Back to Bellingham event with the goal to raise $3,000 (faculty and staff donate $2,500 per year through payroll deduction). Maria made a motion seconded by David, supporting involvement in the Back-to-Bellingham scholarship fund drive. Cyndie requested a list of recipients of university diversity funds to evaluate how the funds have been being used around the campus in order to engage other colleges to look for ways of collaborating across campus since many may end up wanting to be teachers. Cyndie also reminded the committee that the Presidents Diversity Initiative funds will be distributed across campus by the university level diversity task force beginning this year. The task force is representative of the university stakeholders, and includes faculty, staff, and students. This is a change from previous years when a smaller group of administrators previously allocated the funds. The committee discussed using scholarship funds to pay for fees, textbooks, etc. in ways that does not trigger offsetting adjustments in financial aid.	FIGS – report to committee at March meeting. MOTION PASSED: Committee members agree to participate in the planning and presentation of a Back-to-Bellingham Woodring Scholarship fundraising event. Karen and Susan will work with Compass to Campus to investigate scholarships further to insure compliance with financial aid rules.
